

www.readhowyouwant.com

This format can help people for whom English is their second language and who have difficulty reading and pronouncing non-phonetic words.

I love the phrase [fraze] that a friend [frend] in need is a friend [frend] indeed. I and my friend [frend] were making lunch together one day. She was kneading [needing] the dough [doe] and I was cooking salmon [saymun]. We detected the first signs [saainz] of trouble [trubal] quite late when we became aware of an odd scent [sent]. It was coming from the fridge [frij]. When we tried to open it, it refused to budge [buj] and we had to wrest [rest] it open.

One autumn [autum] evening, an old lady was sitting by the fire [faier] looking at some tarot [tayro] cards. She heard [herd] someone knocking [nocking] at the door. When she opened it, she found two [to] gnomes [nomez] standing there. They were talking [tauking] to each other and their [there] shoelaces were tied in knots [nots]. They asked her if she would [wood] buy [by] some [sum] candy from them.